CASE 1: Young adult patient presented with nagging back pain for last 3 months

CASE 2: Male infant born at term. Presents at 6 weeks of age with breathlessness (present almost since birth)

CASE 3: Admitted with pain abdomen and O/E: tenderness and guarding

CASE 4: Found intoxicated and unconscious on road, brought in by paramedics

CASE 5: Presents with acute loin pain; seizure free for last 20 years. Sibling is also Seizure free

CASE 6: 14 y/o presents with recurrent nasal blocks and SOB
Answers:

1. TB discitis

2. CLE

3. Gallstone ileus and iatrogenic GB perforation: NG tube tip in GB

4. ED empyema

5. Tuberous sclerosis

6. Wagener’s Granulomatosis